PREVIOUSLY ON MONSTER CLUB ARCADE

After a brief interruption the Arcade Tournament continues. As the contestants make their way back to the arcade Cardz is given a special card by his newly made friend, Pink...

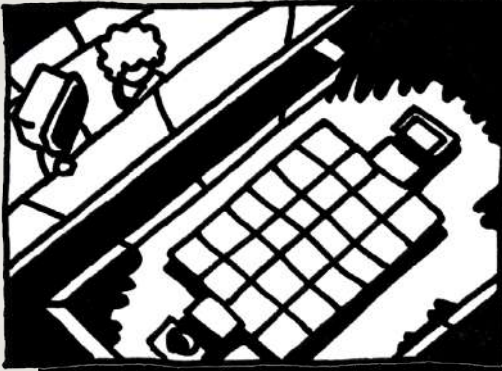

The contestants find themselves in yet another game outside of the games. This time it is a game to find the right opponent in time. Charlotte stumbles upon the trio and explains that Cardz should keep its letter upside down, inside out and against the light to reveal its next opponent.

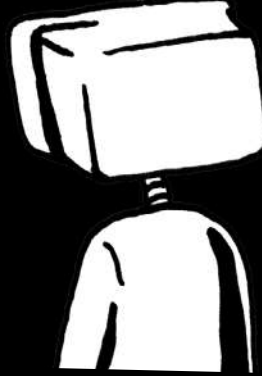

Checked in at the basement the notorious T.V. Man awaits its next victim. As Cardz faces the so-called 'unbeatable A.I.' he finds himself in a new Monster Club game mode: Monster Maze. An invention of T.V. Man himself.

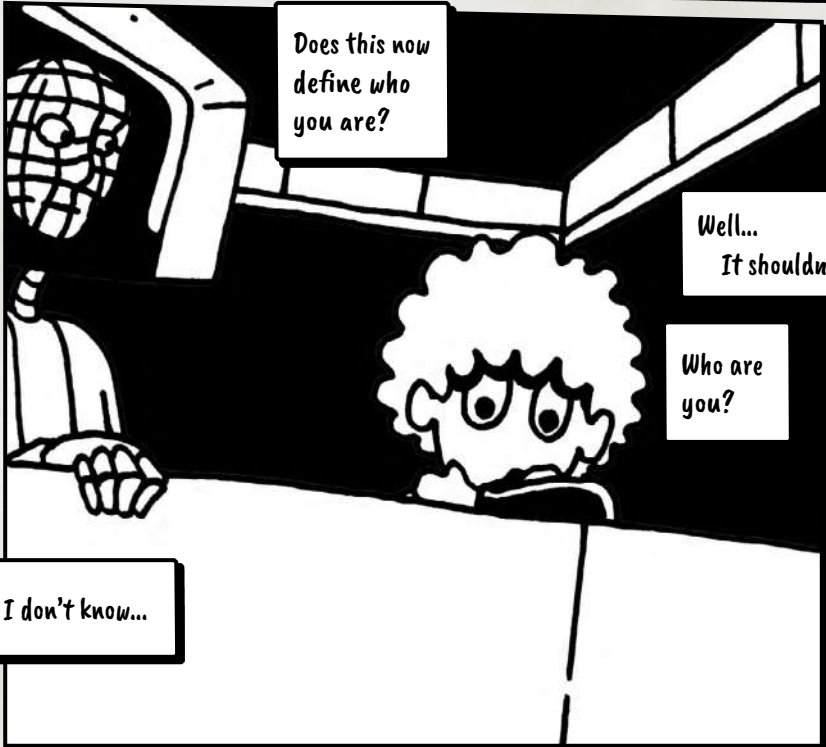

THE STORY CONTINUES NOW...

Who are you?

I just lost.

Does this now define who you are?

Well...
It shouldn't.

Who are you?

I don't know...

I play...

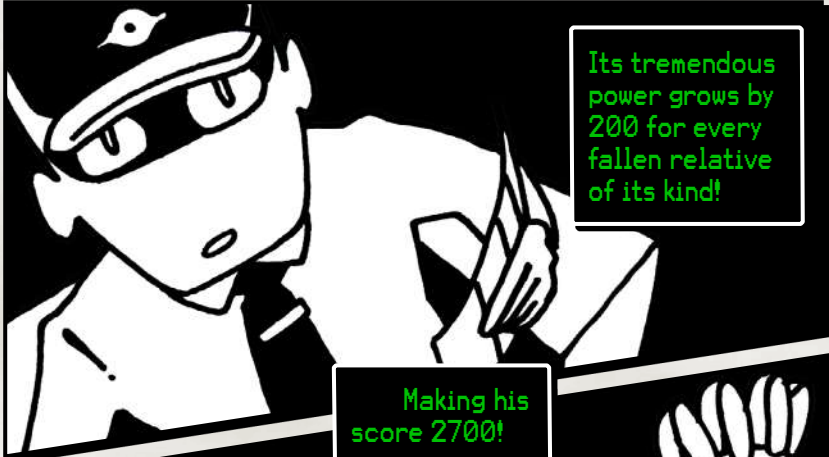

The amazing Gogga Leviathan!

Woah!

It's huge!

!!!

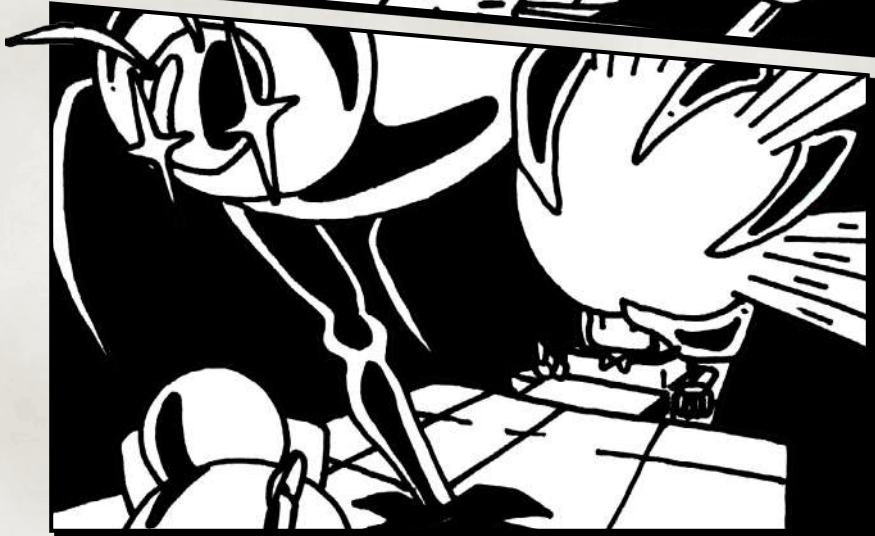

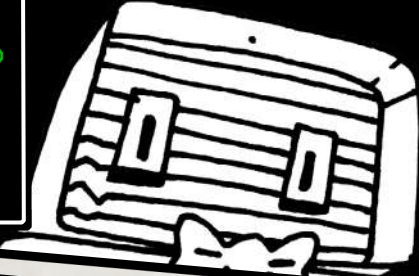

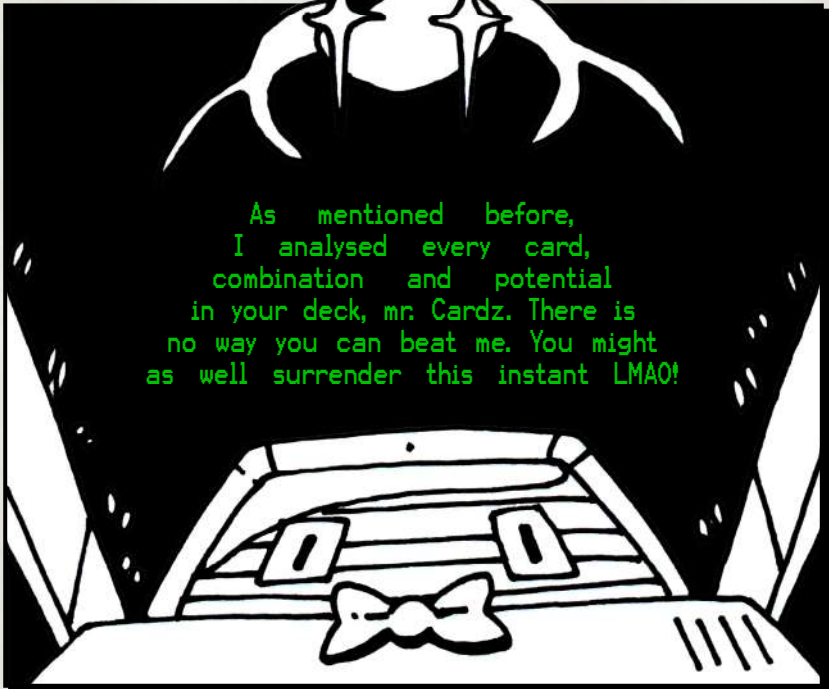

Its tremendous power grows by 200 for every fallen relative of its kind!

Making his score 2700!

You are staring into the face of your superior, mr. Cardz.

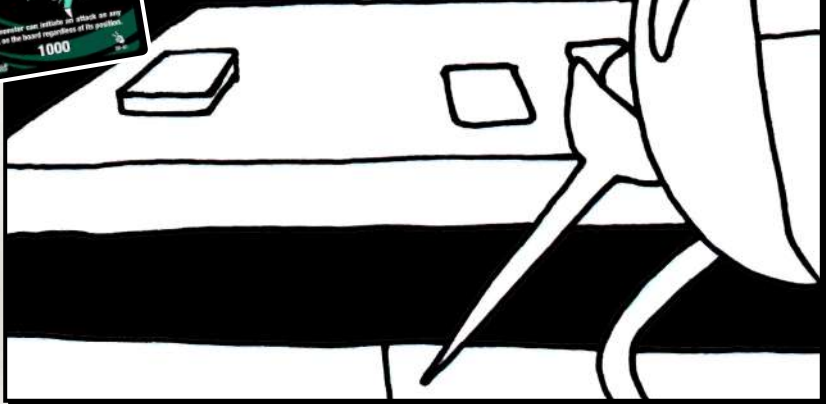

I know as well as T.V. Man does that there is no card in my deck that can compete with the score of Gogga Leviathan. But I know that Monster Club is more than high scores only.

T.V. Man knows I am not familiar with Monster Maze. So he probably does not expect me to take any risks...

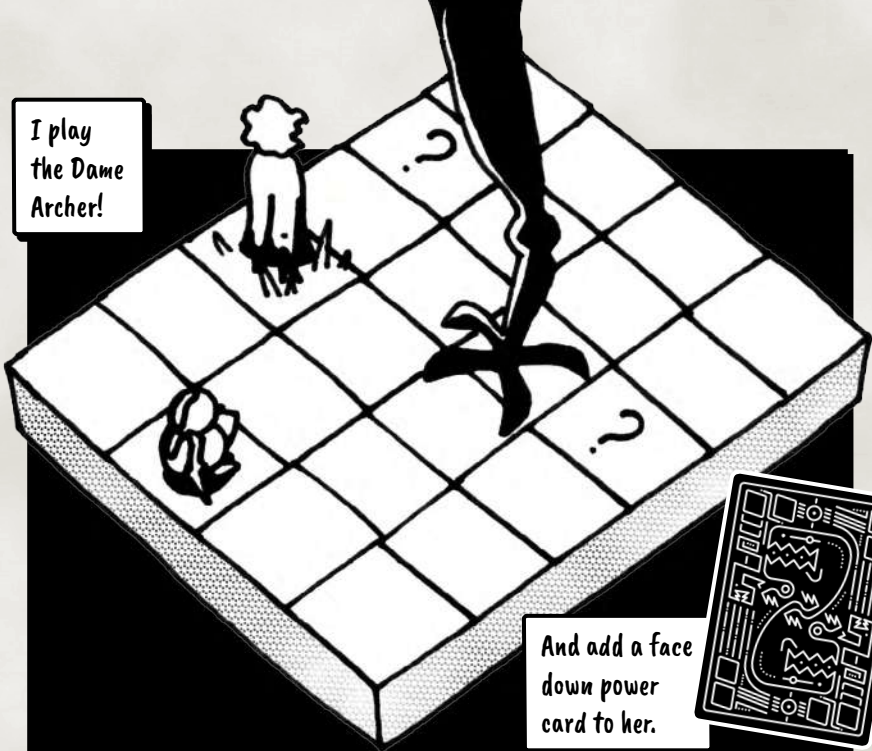

Dame Archer makes the perfect scout since she can also attack from far away.

$2700 - 1300 = 1400...$
 $1400/200 = 7!$
So there were 7 Easy Gogga in T.V. Man's deck. Meaning that if I overcome this there is probably not much left!

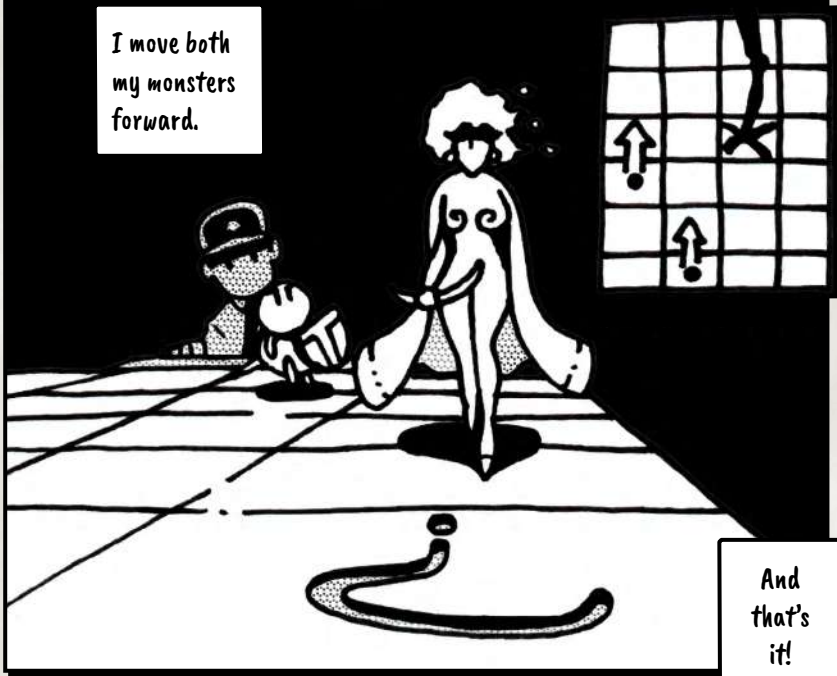

I play
the Dame Archer!

And add a face down power
card to her.

I move both
my monsters
forward.

And
that's it!

I see you have taken note of the question marks on my board.

Please allow me to demonstrate their purpose for you!

Getting here first allowed me to place two so-called 'board cards' on my board.

Board cards function as power cards. However, they stay in place. When a monster enters their position they are activated. When a monster moves away from the board card they stay in place.

But I have good manners, mr. Cardz. So my Neither Gogga Nor Man won't attack this turn allowing you to move away..

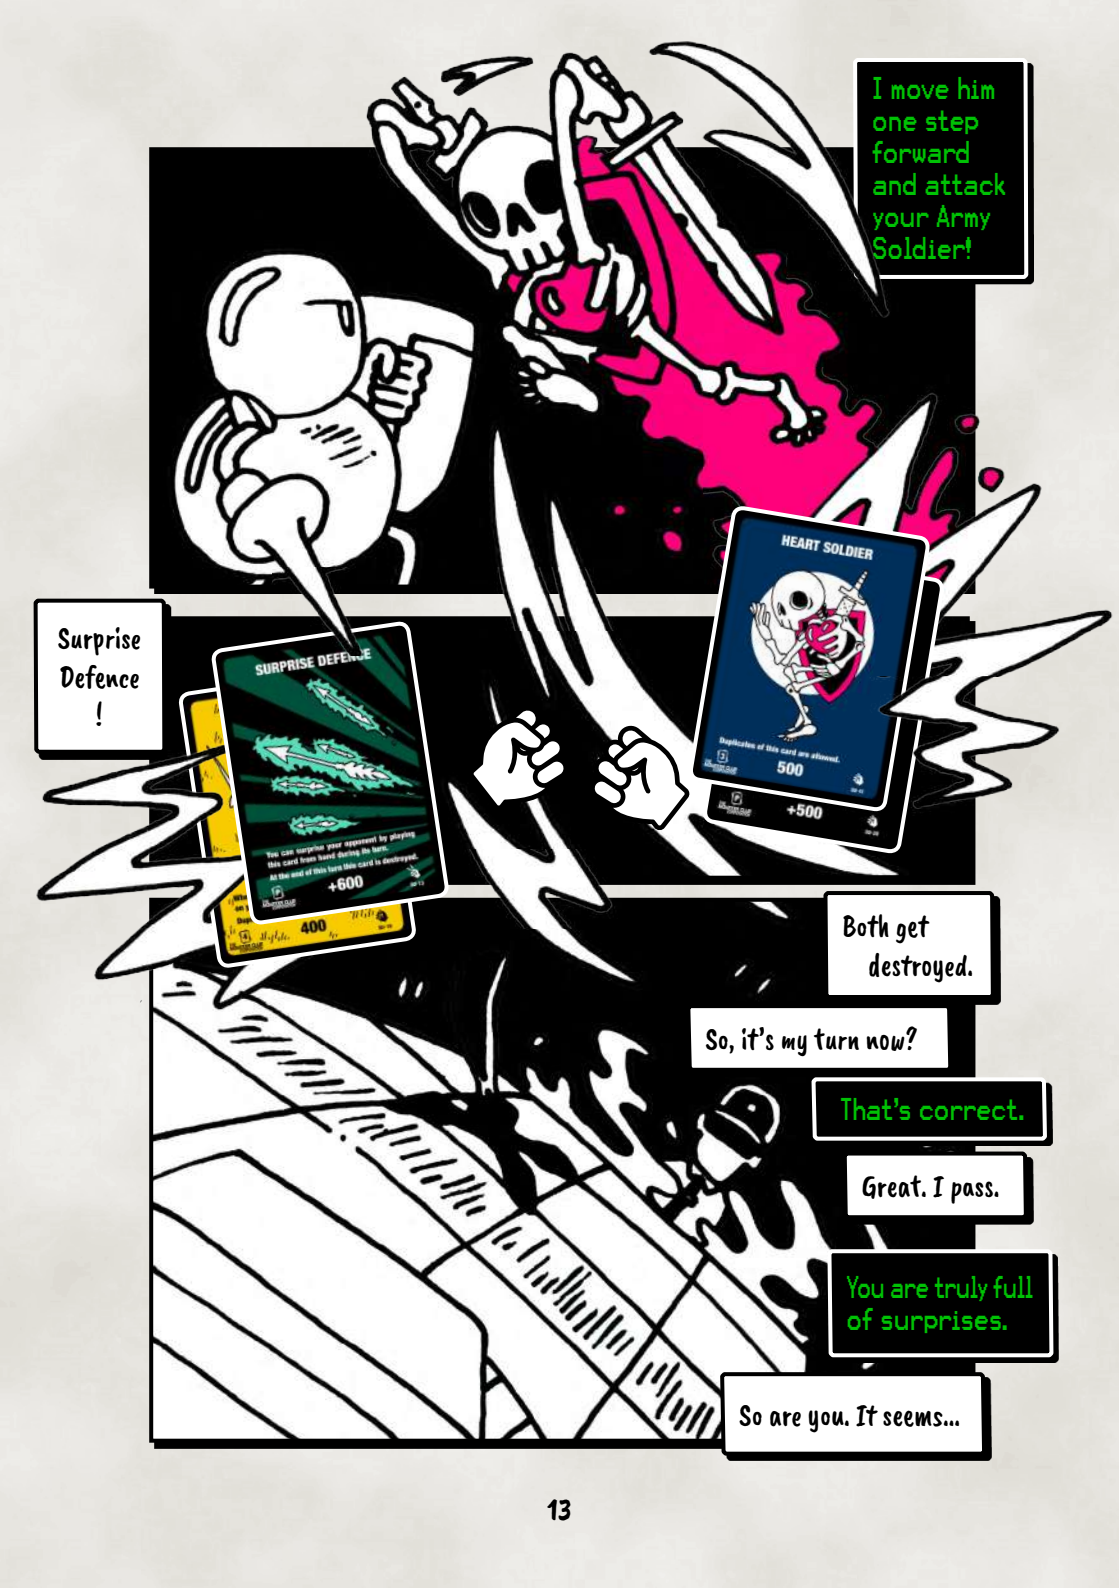

...But
your Army Soldier
won't be so lucky!

I play Heart Soldier and I increase its score with
The Second
Power Sword.

I move him
one step forward
and attack
your Army Soldier!

Surprise
Defence

Both get destroyed.

So, it's my turn now?

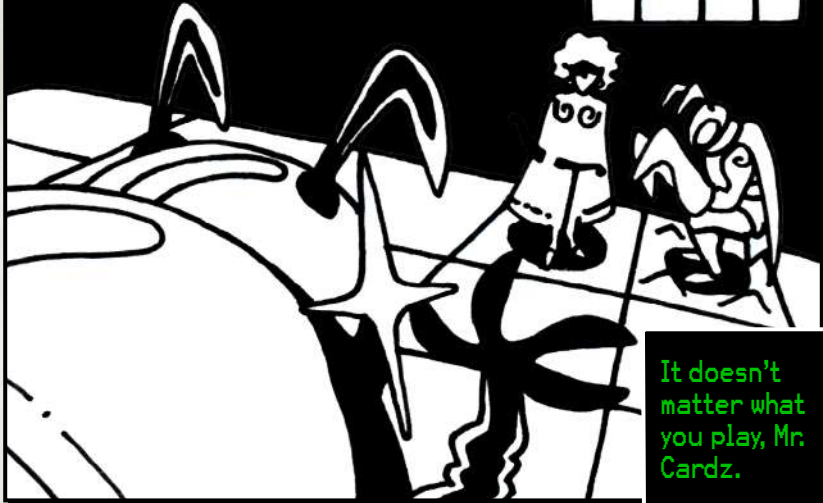

That's correct.

Great. I pass.

You are truly full of surprises.

So are you. It seems...

To make sure you cannot pull off any strange tricks I close you in by moving Leviathan towards your Dame Archer.

It doesn't matter what you play, Mr. Cardz.

My Army of Gogga will close your monsters in and detsroy them.

One.

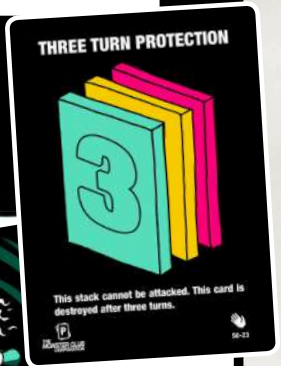

By.

One.

Neither Gogga
Nor Man! Attack
the Dame Archer!

My face down power card is revealed...

The Dame
Archer
is now protected for three turns!

I should have seen that coming!

// Did my arrogance put me off my guard
just a little...?

You see mr. Cardz. Like Neither Gogga Nor Man I am also neither A.I. nor man. The remains of my former self turn me into an immortal genius. But it also flaws me making me vulnerable to human error. Like giving you an opportunity to get away which you so ungratefully tossed aside...

It won't happen again!
The A.I. is unbeatable,
mr. Cardz!

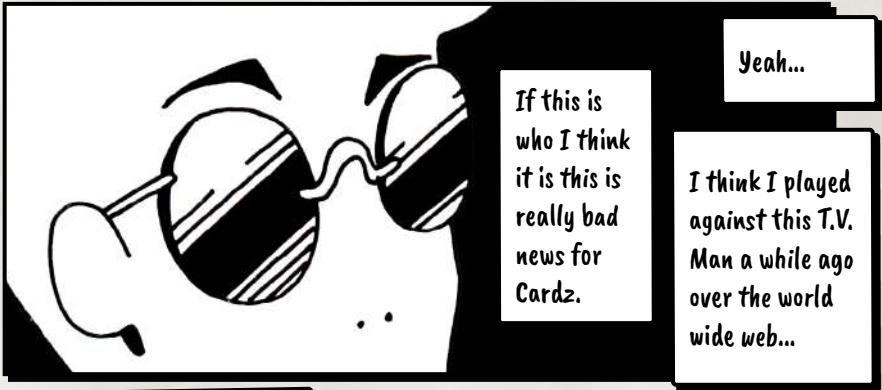

Could it be ?!

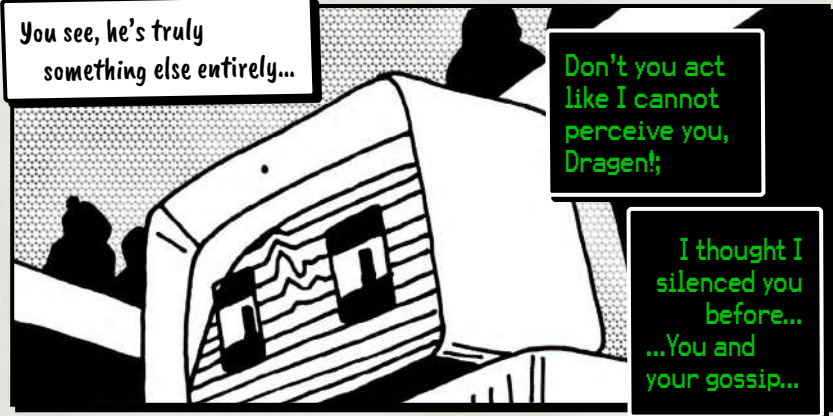

You have some nerve showing your face here!

If this is who I think it is this is really bad news for Cardz.

Yeah...

I think I played against this T.V. Man a while ago over the world wide web...

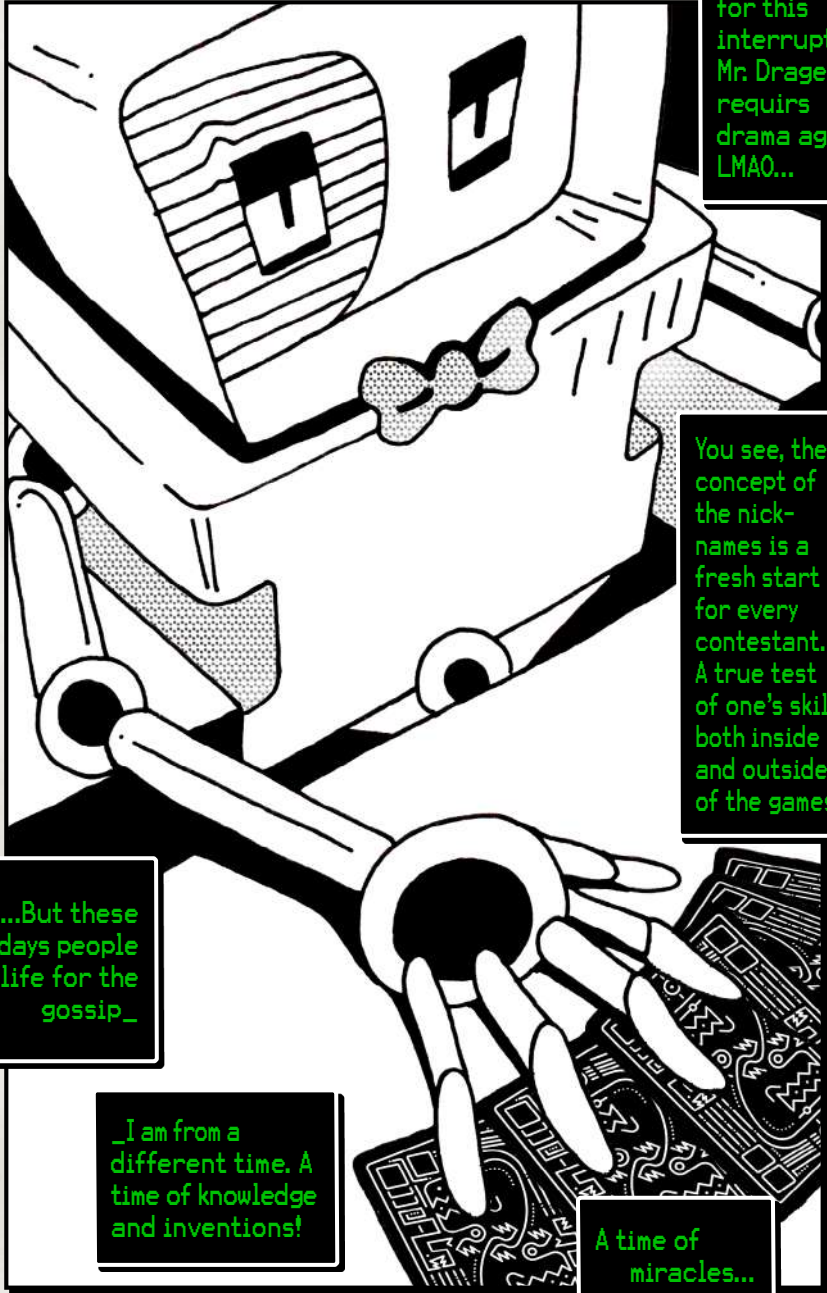

You see, he's truly something else entirely...

Don't you act like I cannot perceive you, Dragen!;

I thought I silenced you before...
...You and your gossip...

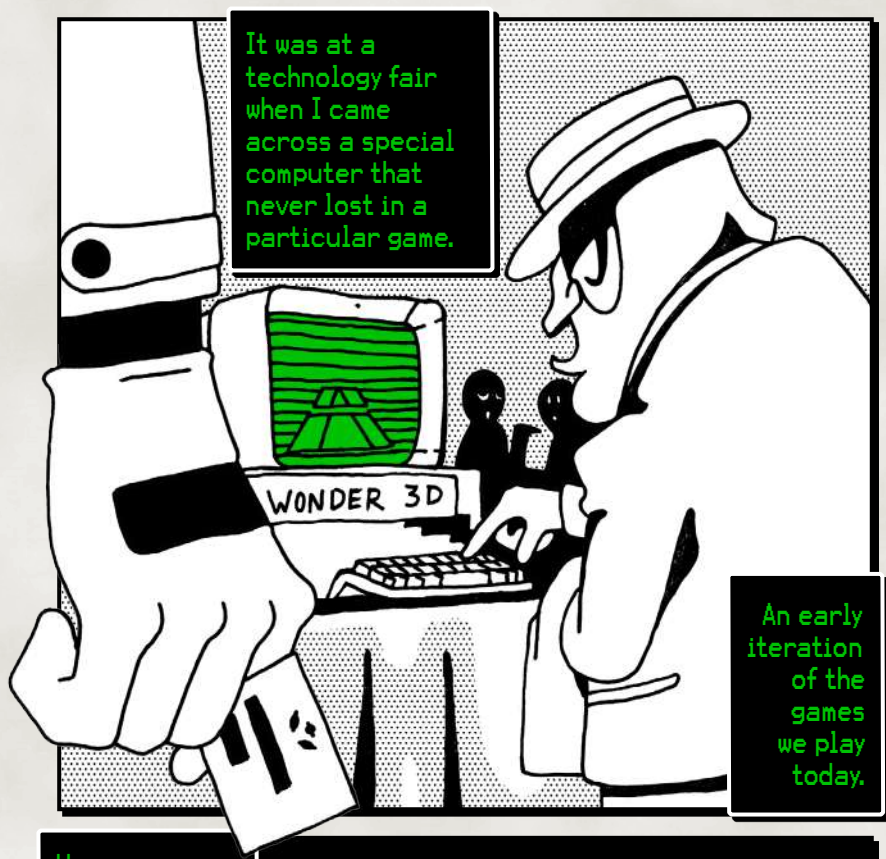

Excuse us,
mr. Cardz,
for this interruptio.
Mr. Dragen requires drama again
LMAO...

You see, the concept of the nicknames is a fresh start for every contestant.
A true test
of one's skill
both inside and outside of the games.

...But these days people live for the gossip_

_I am from a different time. A time of knowledge
and inventions!

A time of miracles...

It was at a technology fair when I came across a special computer that never lost in a particular game.

An early iteration of the games we play today.

However, not many people at the fair seemed interested.

Yet my intellect was triggered.

LOSER.

I swore to beat the A.I. But I failed time and time again.

Never in my life had someone or something outsmarted me like this.

It was Years later when my body was preparing to depart from this mortal world. But my great mind was not ready. For in death I would not yet receive the recognition I deserved. YET!

The luxury of time was no longer on my side. I had to act swiftly.

My short life expectancy triggered the memory of the computer A.I. and its remarkable potential.

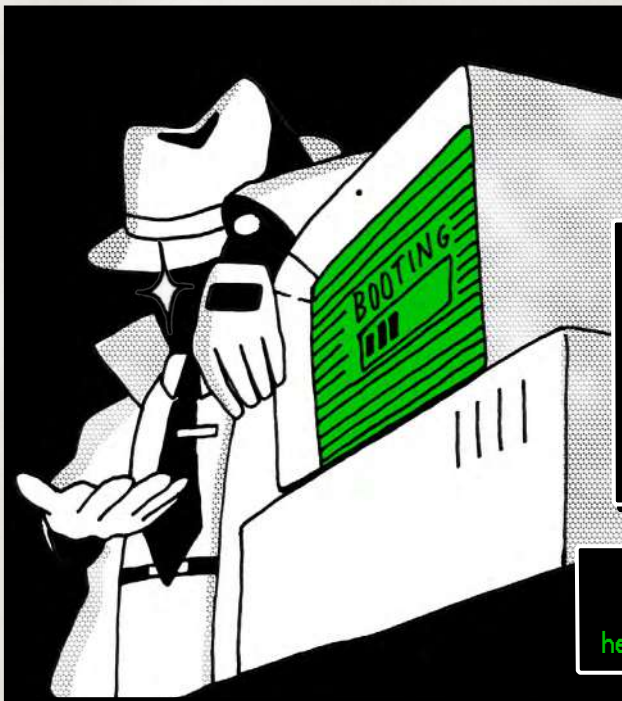

Sequential I wrote a letter to the curious individual showcasing the A.I. at the fair..

...presenting him with an offer the likes of him could not refuse.

Just days later the curious individual presented me again with
the A.I.

I asked him whether he would like to play
for god.
His eyes
shimmered.

Without hesitation
he agreed.

I had my calculations
long done.
Now I only needed to write it into the system.

My physical condition declined fastly...

...It was a race
against the clock.

I was determined!

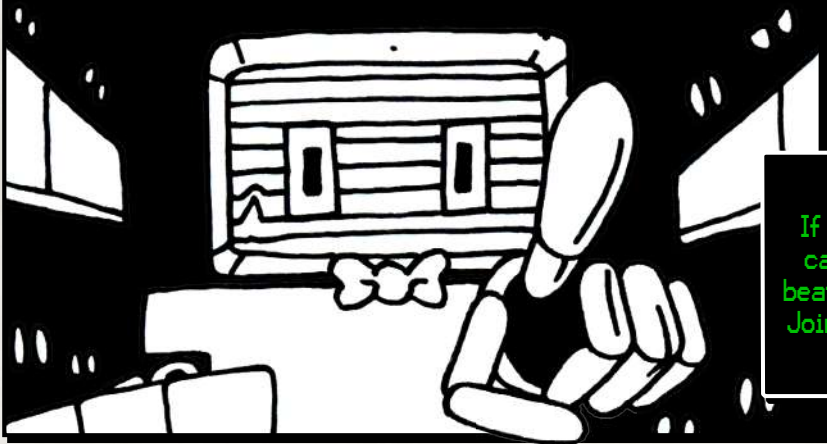

Did it work?

Of course it did.

I infused with the unbeatable
A.I., mr. Cardz.

If you can't beat 'em.
Join 'em

Too bad for you today this is not an option.

Hmm...

Why are you laughing?

You think Monster
Club is about logic and theories. But it is also a game of luck.

!AND YOU JUST RAN OUT OF LUCK!

I hope your processors are warmed up
for an infinite combo, T.V. Man!

*In Monster Club original cards to the reprints get to keep their special effect as described on the card. Take 'great' care of your first edition cards. They may become rare someday...

THAT CARD WAS HEAVILY ALTERED!

This first edition of The Great Collector
is a little different.
It collects all the power cards that get destroyed on my board.

YOU SHOULD NOT BE ABLE TO HAVE IT!

But I do!

First I move my Dame Archer
one spot backwards.

And I play Deal With The Grave to The Dame Archer!

I return one of YOUR Easy Gogga. But this time he's under my control.

Deal With The Grave is destroyed. But as a result of The Collector's effect it is stacked to him instead.

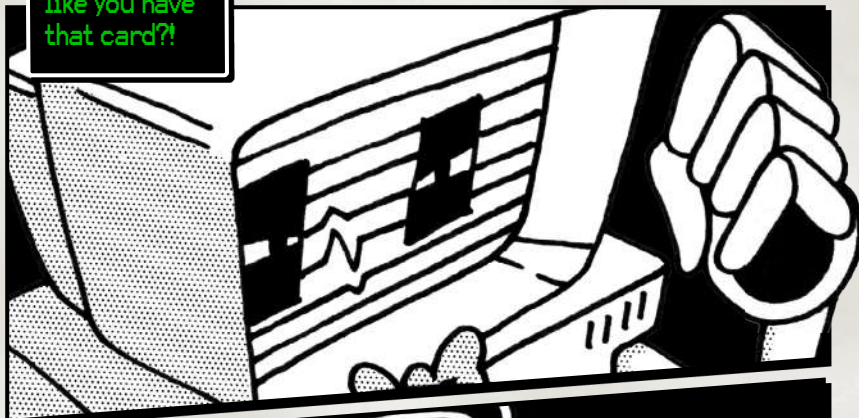

Return To Shadows allows me to turn all cards on my board face down and restack them.

It is also destroyed afterwards. This allows me to repeat this sequence with two more monsters!

The more Easy Gogga I resurrect the weaker your Leviathan becomes.

How can a kid like you have that card?!

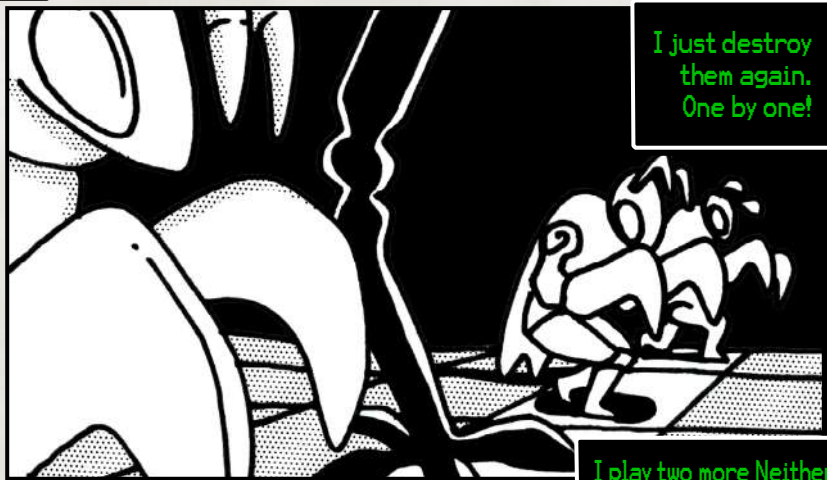

This is a time of miracles, T.V. Man!

Your turn.

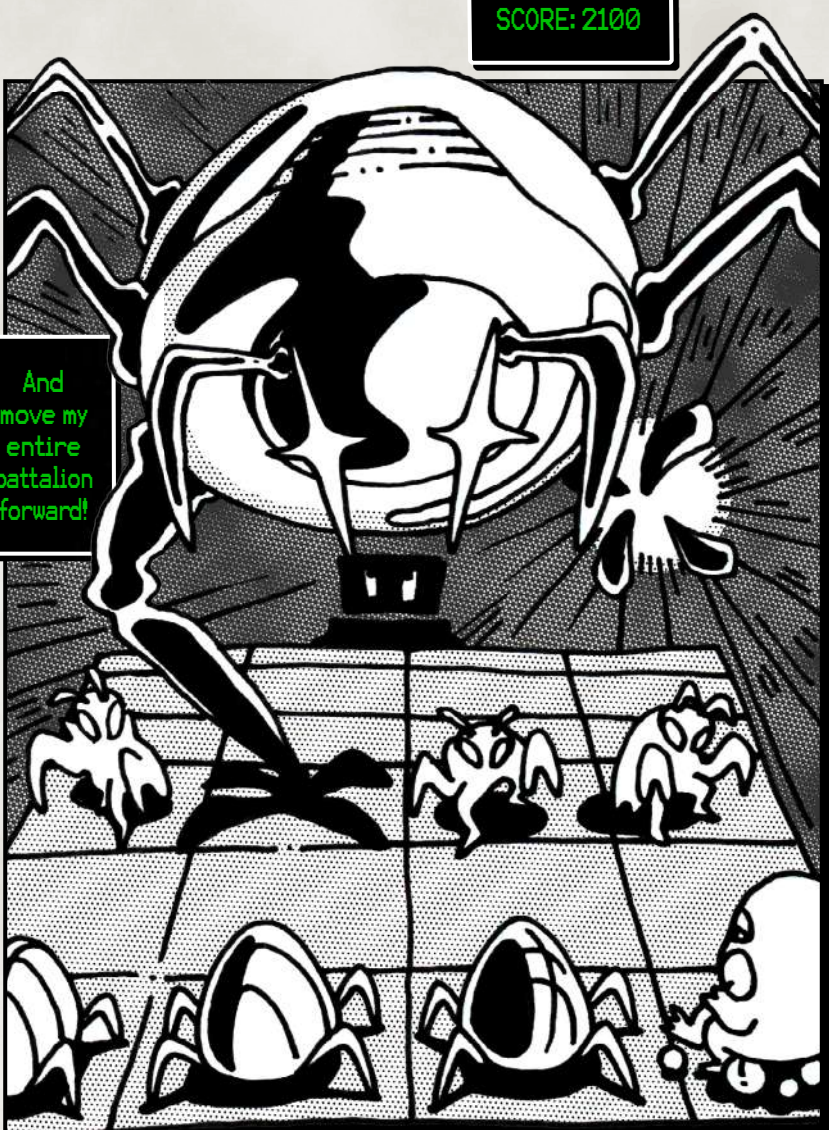

I just destroy them again. One by one!

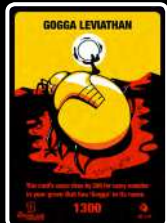

I play two more Neither Gogga Nor Man!

SCORE: 2100

And move my entire battalion
forward!

You see, Mr. Cardz. All your efforts will be in vein. On the next turn I shall destroy all your monsters and Gogga Leviathan will be restored to its full power! And even if you manage to destroy my Neither Gogga Nor Man, Leviathan will grow even stronger..

But I'm not done
yet!

I am not taking any chances this time so I stack some score increasing power cards to my Neither Gogga Nor Man.

THE TURN ENDS,
MR. CARDZ.

CAN YOU HANDLE THE PRESSURE?

Firstly
I get to draw 5
cards.

I play The Grand Power Up
to my Easy Gogga on my right!

I move my Easy Gogga in the middle one step forward so it faces your Gogga Leviathan.

You know what beats evolution, T.V. Man?

TEAM WORK
!

Combined Force combines the scores of two of my monsters.

Just for this turn...

...which is all I need!

LEVIATHAN IS DONE!

And so are you.

NO!

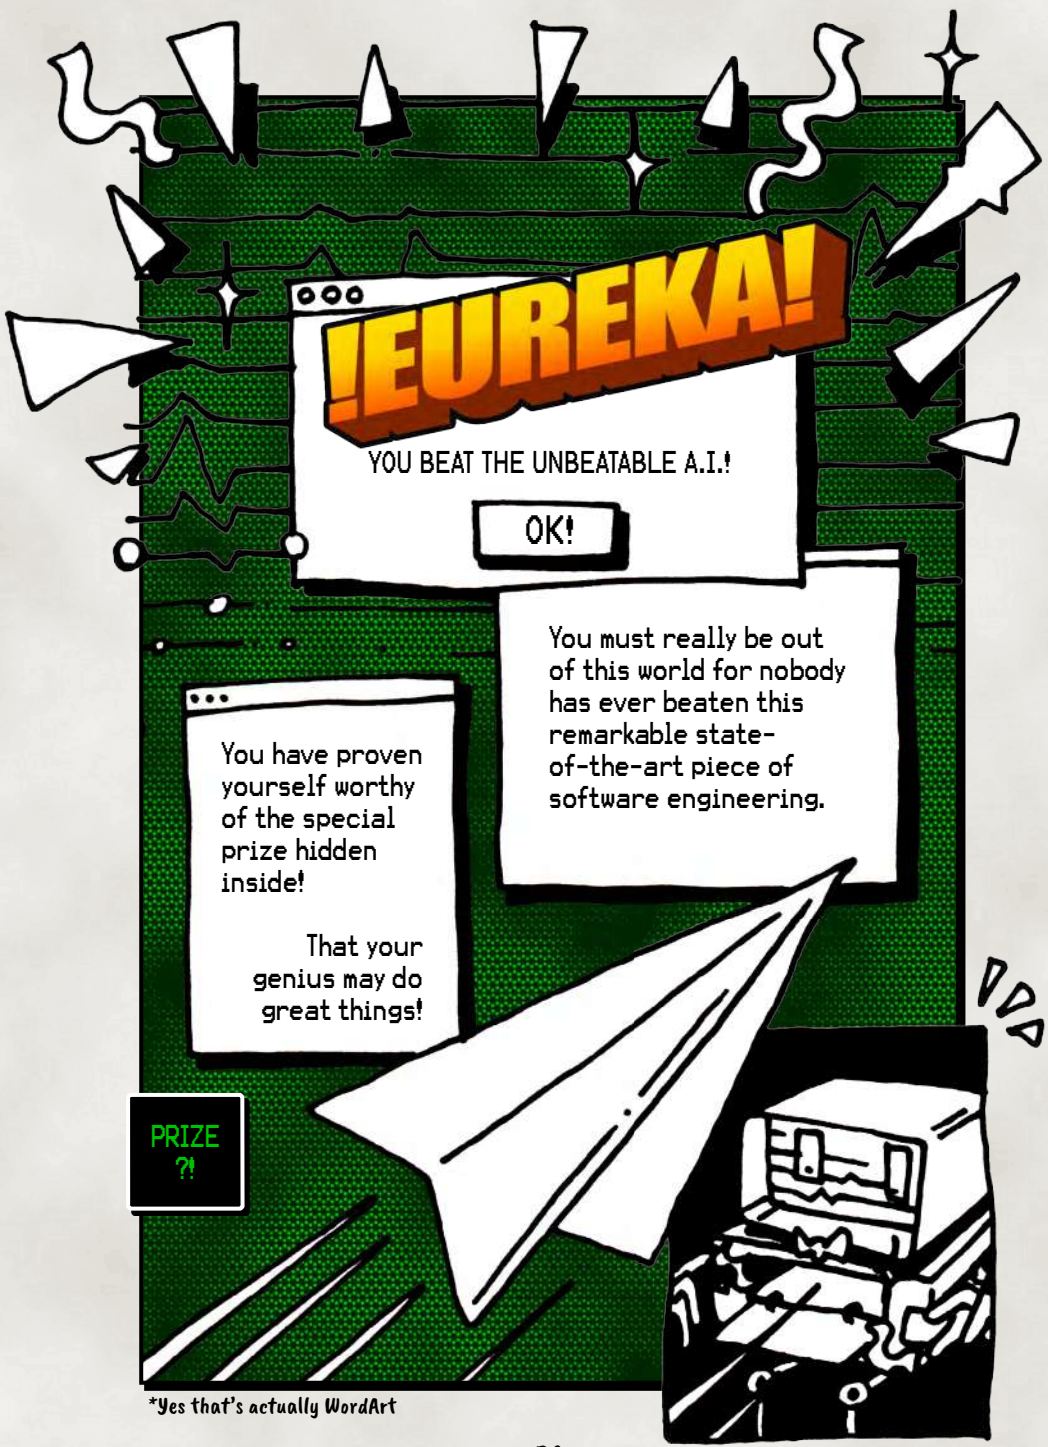

You know
the odds.
Check your data. It is over.

...

GG;

EUREKA!

YOU BEAT THE UNBEATABLE A.I.!

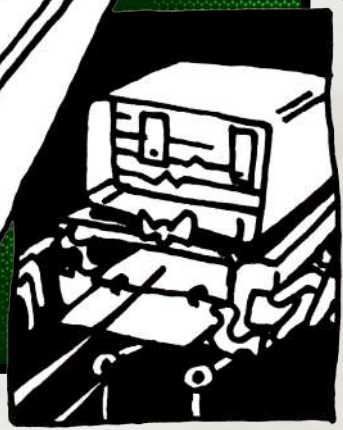

OK!

You have proven yourself worthy of the special prize hidden inside!

That your genius may do great things!

You must really be out of this world for nobody has ever beaten this remarkable state-of-the-art piece of software engineering.

?!

*Yes that's actually WordArt

I got
it,
Cardz

T.V. MAN!

*I don't think you are, who you say
you are!*

*In fact I question
you, were ever even human at all!*

But I want you to know that to me
this matters not!

I came here to face the greatest of Monster
Club players.
And you are certainly amongst them.

But you opened my eyes today,
T.V. Man...

Host!

I address you directly. You've just exposed yourself. It has become clear that this entire tournament has a double agenda. But know this. It doesn't matter how many employees you send my way. The moment that I will face you is closing in. Keep your eyes pierced, SPECTRE. I AM COMING FOR YOU!
